* A program must be accredited by AATA, including a supervised internship in creative arts therapy & psychotherapy. You can access a directory of AATA accredited programs at www.aata.org.

 An appropriately recognized program must be offered by a regionally accredited college or university in the US or be recognized by the appropriate civil authorities of the jurisdiction in which the program is offered. School must submit transcript and verification of supervised internship in creative arts therapy & psychotherapy for review.

 The permit may be granted for two years; it may be extended for no more than two one-year periods upon submission of a new permit application & permit fee and justification. The permit will only be issued for authorized setting(s) under qualified supervisor(s), as defined in Education Law and Commissioner's Regulations.

* At least two-thirds of the supervised experience requirement must be direct client activities, as defined in the Commissioner's Regulations, in the same setting under the authorized supervisor.

* If you passed the ATCB or CBMT examination in another jurisdiction, you must request a score transfer from the examination vendor; scores submitted by applicants or jurisdictions are not acceptable. New York will not accept examinations given under non-standard conditions (e.g., ESL arrangements for extra time or translating dictionary); such applicants will have to take the exam under standard conditions. No other examination is acceptable.
