Child Support Obligation

Everyone applying for a professional license, permit, or registration, or any renewal thereof, must file a written statement that, as of the date of the filing, she or he is, or is not, under an obligation to pay child support*. Individuals who are four months or more in arrears in child support or who have failed to comply with a summons, subpoena or warrant relating to a paternity or child support proceeding may be subject to suspension of their business, professional, drivers and/or recreational licenses and permits. The intentional submission of false written statements for the purpose of frustrating or defeating the lawful enforcement of support obligations is punishable under section 175.35 of the Penal Law.

You must complete this section before we can issue the credential for which you have applied. Individuals who are not in compliance with their obligation to pay child support can be issued a credential for no more than six months in order to comply with their child support obligations.

Check only A or B below. If you check B, you must check one of the five statements listed below it.

A. □ I am not under an obligation to pay child support

OR

B. □ I am under an obligation to pay child support and (please check only one of the following)

□ I am current and am not four months or more in arrears in the payment of child support; or,

□ I am making payments by income execution or by court agreed payment plan or by a plan agreed to by the parties; or,

□ The child support obligation is the subject of a pending court proceeding; or,

□ I am receiving public assistance or supplemental security income; or,

□ None of the above four statements apply.

The Regulations of the Commissioner of Education require the supervisor to attest that appropriate training and experience will be afforded to the applicant for ophthalmic dispensing licensure. This includes the following:

- Supervision shall be by a New York State licensed ophthalmic dispenser, optometrist, or physician.
- Supervision shall be on-site and the supervisor should be readily accessible so that personal advice and assistance can be provided to the trainee.
- No more than one applicant on a training permit may be supervised concurrently.
- A trainee may not be employed for less than 24 hours weekly.
- A trainee must be enrolled in the National Academy of Opticianry’s Career Progression Program.
- Appropriate clinical experiences shall include, but not be limited to: verification and interpretation of prescriptions; fitting and adjusting of ophthalmic eyewear; lens neutralization and identification; patient/client instruction; and other aspects of the practice of ophthalmic dispensing, including laboratory preparation.
- Since the trainee permit to be issued will be for ophthalmic dispensing, appropriate clinical experiences may not go beyond the limitations of the legal definition of the practice of ophthalmic dispensing, which is defined in Article 144 of the Education Law, as: …adapting and fitting lenses, for the correction of deficiencies, deformities or anomalies of the human eyes, on written prescriptions from a licensed physician or optometrist. Replacements or duplicates of such lenses may be adapted and dispensed without prescription.
- A trainee permit is valid for two years (24 months) and can be renewed for only one additional year (12 months). Ophthalmic dispensing practice may not begin before the permit is issued and must cease upon the permit’s expiration.
- The trainee permit must be conspicuously displayed in the employment setting next to the current registration certificates of all the licensed practitioners.
- At the conclusion of the trainee-supervisor relationship, the supervisor must complete a Certificate of Experience (Form 4) verifying the exact dates of the training. These dates may not extend beyond the dates for which the trainee permit was issued.
- Trainees must wear a clearly visible badge that lists their name and the fact that they are an ophthalmic dispensing trainee. The law prohibits them from using the title "optician", "ophthalmic dispenser", or variations of those terms until they are licensed in New York, even if they are certified by the American Board of Opticianry.

The Regulations of the Commissioner of Education require the supervisor to attest that appropriate training and experience will be afforded to the applicant for contact lens dispensing certification. This includes the following:

- Supervision shall be by a New York State licensed ophthalmic dispenser certified in contact lens dispensing, optometrist, or physician.
- Supervision shall be on-site and the supervisor should be readily accessible so that personal advice and assistance can be provided to the trainee.
- No more than one applicant on a training permit may be supervised concurrently.
- A trainee may not be employed for less than 24 hours weekly.
- A trainee must be enrolled in the Contact Lens Society of America's Contact Lens Study Manual program.
- Appropriate clinical experiences shall include at least 1,200 clock hours in the verification and interpretation of contact lens prescriptions, fitting and adjusting of contact lenses, patient/client instruction, and other aspects of the practice of contact lens fitting.
- Since the trainee permit to be issued will be for contact lens dispensing, appropriate clinical experiences may not go beyond the limitations of the legal definition of the practice of ophthalmic dispensing, which is defined in Article 144 of the Education Law, as:
  ...adapting and fitting lenses, for the correction of deficiencies, deformities or anomalies of the human eyes, on written prescriptions from a licensed physician or optometrist. Replacements or duplicates of such lenses may be adapted and dispensed without prescription. Contact lenses may be fitted by an ophthalmic dispenser only under the personal supervision of a licensed physician or optometrist.
- A trainee permit is valid for two years (24 months) and can be renewed for only one additional year (12 months). Contact lens practice may not begin before the permit is issued and must cease upon the permit's expiration.
- The trainee permit must be conspicuously displayed in the employment setting next to the current registration certificates of all the licensed practitioners.
- At the conclusion of the trainee-supervisor relationship, the supervisor must complete a Certificate of Experience (Form 4) verifying the exact dates of the training. These dates may not extend beyond the dates for which the trainee permit was issued.
- Trainees must wear a clearly visible badge that lists their name and the fact that they are a contact lens dispensing trainee. The law prohibits them from using the title "optician", "ophthalmic dispenser", "contact lens dispenser", or variations of those terms until they are licensed in New York, even if they are certified by the American Board of Opticianry or the National Contact Lens Examiners.
