To receive a certificate to practice as a nurse practitioner in New York State you must:

- have a currently registered New York State license as a Registered Professional Nurse (RN); and

A nurse practitioner is authorized to practice in a specific specialty area. You may be authorized in more than one specialty. Current specialty areas are: Acute Care, Adult Health, College Health, Community Health, Family Health, Gerontology, Holistic Care, Neonatology, Obstetrics/Gynecology, Oncology, Pediatrics, Palliative Care, Perinatology, Psychiatry, School Health, Women's Health.

You must file an Application for a Certificate (Form 1) for each specialty area you want to be authorized in and all other forms indicated to demonstrate that you have satisfied the education requirements specific to that specialty area, along with the appropriate fee, to the Office of the Professions at the address specified on each form. It is your responsibility to follow up with anyone you have asked to send us material. Once authorized, you must maintain the registration of your RN license and your NP certificate in order to practice as a nurse practitioner.

The specific requirements to obtain a certificate are contained in Title 8, Article 139, Section 6910 of New York's Education Law and Part 64 of the Commissioner's Regulations. For additional information regarding legal requirements for licensed/certified professionals, see the section on "Professional Conduct."

FEES (fees listed are those in effect at the time this application was printed)

The fee for a certificate in each nurse practitioner specialty area is $85. ($50 certificate application fee plus a $35 fee for initial registration.)

Fees are subject to change. The fee due is the one in law when your application is received (unless fees are increased retroactively). You will be billed for the difference if fees have been increased.

- Do not send cash.
- Make your personal check or money order payable to the New York State Education Department.
Your cancelled check is your receipt.
- Mail your application and fee to: NYS Education Department, Office of the Professions at the address at the end of the Application for a Certificate (Form 1).

PLEASE NOTE: Payment submitted from outside the United States should be made by check or draft on a United States bank and in United States currency; payments submitted in any other form will not be accepted and will be returned.
