- a.) Firms that require continued oversight: 2 firms will remain on the monitoring list.
- b.) Firms that no longer require oversight: 1 firm was removed from the monitoring list.
- c.) Firms that were monitored, referred to OPD and no longer require oversight: None.

AICPA Tickets:

Firm B – The committee briefly reviewed the case continued from last meeting and earlier in this meeting.

Firm C – It was found that the firm was terminated but now re-enrolled in the peer review program. The FSBA had missing information as there was not a completion letter for the prior peer review period, the new peer review period was not listed. The PROC staff requested PICPA for the completion letter to be posted in FSBA and confirm the next peer review period as it would be overdue already. The PICPA responded but did not provide the requested information. The PROC asked that the matter be escalated by sending a ticket to the AICPA and copy Mr. Neyman.

New Business: None.

On a motion by Ms. Singer and seconded by Mr. Nawrocki, the Committee unanimously agreed to close executive session and end the meeting at 11:41 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer Winters, CPA
Executive Secretary
